

Building Envelope Science Institute Inc.

Providing the Essential Knowledge & Skills

Membership Application

Please read the following Code of Ethics and Conduct before submitting the membership form.

Code of Ethics

1. To apply fair treatment, good manners and honest conduct in the efficient operation of their business.
2. To support research which is planned to advance the professional image of the industry through the of practice, and application of new techniques, methods and products.
3. To actively participate in the broadening of productive relationships with public authorities associated with the administration of building and construction, manufacturers and suppliers of goods and services as well as related industry associations.
4. To embrace training development and programs, strive to maintain the highest standard of workmanship and promote and improve practical administrative skills in the industry.
5. To champion and promote the friendly exchange of knowledge in practical, technical and ethical subjects between members.

Code of Conduct

1. No Member will make misrepresentations regarding their qualifications which are false or misleading in any respect.
2. Members shall not slander, malign or make false statements regarding any construction industry including other BESI Members or other persons involved in the manufacture, application or inspection of building products.
3. Members shall fully disclose in the contract for services, the general scope of the services and all applicable charges for services prior to conducting the service.
4. Members shall not engage in any conduct that is detrimental to the reputation or the best interest of BESI or the building envelope industry.
5. Members shall pledge themselves to the continued pursuit of increasing their knowledge, education, training and experience so that consumers of building envelope services can rely upon the competence of BESI certified Inspectors and Remediators.

Disciplinary Actions

Members in violation of the Code of Ethics or Code of Conduct will be reviewed by the board of directors which reserves the right to terminate membership and certification of the member.

Building Envelope Science Institute Inc.

Providing the Essential Knowledge & Skills

Please print legibly and submit to BESI.

By filling out the membership form and submitting payment to BESI you hereby agree to the Code of Ethics and Code of Conduct.

Payment Information:

Check: Building Envelope Science Institute, Inc.

1722 NW 80th Blvd., Suite 80,

Gainesville, FL 32606

Credit: MasterCard VISA

Joining Member's Name: _____

Name on Card: _____

Billing Address on Card: _____

Card Number: _____ Expiration Date: _____

Payment Amount: _____

For Registration questions, contact the institute at 877.688.BESI, FAX 321.224.0228 or email registration@besinstitute.com